NEWS AROUND NANAIMO.

The Mayor Will Not be Remunerated—The Need of a Park—Other Matters.

NANAIMO, April 8.—At the last meeting of the Municipal Council the by-law to remunerate the mayor and aldermen was to have been affirmed. Mayor Hilbert was absent on business which detained him at Westminster, and another alderman who was in favor of the bill was also absent. When the by-law came up to be affirmed it was defeated by four votes to three, Ald. Hilbert refusing to vote. The mayor when he learns of the result will feel it keenly, as he being of a liberal disposition is a good sum out of pocket by holding this position. Several of the aldermen threatened to resign, but it is hardly likely they will do so.

THE NEED OF A PARK.

The need of a park or recreation grounds are felt more and more every day. Application has been made to the government to give a grant of 500 acres to the city for the purpose of making a park where the people of Nanaimo can enjoy themselves like the people of Victoria are accustomed to do on Beacon Hill. There are two or three small parks in the city, but the size of them together with the uneven grade will not admit of any sports taking place thereon, and to fix them up it is felt is only money thrown away. It is to be hoped the government will grant the request of the council.

AQUATIC SPORTS.

Nanaimo has made rapid strides in matters aquatic during the past two years, and this year boating will be carried on in a manner that could only be equalled in a large seaport town. The two boat-houses are building new boats as fast as possible, and among them are a few fast sail boats. It is more than likely that a few boats will be sent from Nanaimo this year, to take part in the races at Victoria. One boat was sent to Vancouver last year, and made a good showing, but on the home stretch she ran aground. Nanaimo can boast of good oarsmen, and it would be a pleasant sight to witness a series of matches with the aquatic sportsmen of other cities.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The regular hospital meeting was held at the Old Flag last evening and a favorable report was presented of the condition of the hospital. Arrangements were made whereby the trustees will be enabled to attend to all matters connected with the calico ball which is to be given in aid of the hospital general funds at the opera house next week. There are about fifteen patients at present in the institution and two of these will shortly be discharged as cured. A little more money is required to meet the expense of furnishing a new ward, etc., and as the ball promises to be a success, the necessary articles will be furnished.

LITTLE HAPPENINGS.

Mr. K. C. McDonald will shortly open new carriage works in this city.

The Diamond City orchestra will accompany the amateurs to Victoria. Their services will be given gratuitously.

A Vancouver firm will start in the auction business in this city shortly.

HE WANTS THE CREDIT.

PRESIDENT HARRISON WANTS A HAND IN RECIPROCITY.

How the Sending Back of the Canadian Commissioners is Regarded in New York and Washington—Baron Fava Ready to Return to His Summer Clime.

NEW YORK, April 8.—A special from Washington to the Times says: A good many persons, who have been looking at the matter critically, regard the sending back to Canada of the commissioner who had been invited to come here to talk over reciprocity, as a much more serious diplomatic offense than the Italian incident. The gentlemen who referred to it to-day said it seemed to him that such an incident happening in England or in Germany, with France would be likely to involve these nations in trouble with each other. The Canadians could not have supposed that the President does not like to see Blaine parading himself before the country as the contriver of what the President regards as his plan of reciprocity, and very unlike what Mr. Blaine had in mind when he sent a letter to Congress to insist that the duties must be kept on sugar, in order to make it possible to trade with other nations. Sir Julian Pauncefote would not have permitted his friends to come here if he had been notified that the President had interfered, and notwithstanding Mr. Blaine's intimation that he tried to head the commissioners off, the fact that arrangements were made at the Arlington Hotel for them, and for a considerable stay, makes it look as though the postman who got hold of the letter to him had been entrusted with the letter to the Canadian commissioners. This is very discouraging to those anxious persons who had hoped to see the Canadians consent to a close season in the sealing fisheries. This rebuff would not have been so unceremonious if Mr. Blaine had let the Canadians know as well as he did that the President was determined that the Secretary of state should not run away with all the popularity that was expressed for reciprocity. The remarks of the party here and in New York show they were surprised. It is impossible to ascertain anything directly here, but it is learned that there is a well settled disposition on the part of the President to take a prominent and directing part in any negotiations that may be conducted with the purpose of agreeing to a basis for Canadian reciprocity.

Baron Fava's Departure.

NEW YORK, April 8.—Baron Fava, the Italian Minister, who, a few days ago presented his letters of recall as Minister to the United States from Italy, arrived in this city last evening about 10:30 from Washington. He went directly to the Victoria Hotel, where he is in the habit of staying. He did not register, however, and the people who called upon him, with the exception of intimate friends, were not received. The hotel people even refused to send cards up to the Baron's room. Baron Fava was nervous and seemed to be depressed, and this may have been his reason for not caring to receive callers. He had been ill recently in Washington. It is understood that he will sail for Italy on Saturday and it was said last night that he would be a passenger on one of the French steamers. Saturday is the day that the dispatches from Rome have announced for the departure of Baron Fava.

The Contract Let.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. April 8.—Inquiry at the offices of the Great Northern railway confirms the rumor that a big company has let the contract for a portion of the line from Assinaboine west to this coast. The road now terminates just east of the maine divide of the Rocky Mountains and is to be extended north of Flathead Lake and Spokane to meet the Westminster branch of the Fairhaven railroad, recently acquired by the Great Northern, and then to run down to Seattle. The contract which has just been let, is for the intermediate stretch of line near Pend de Orielle Lake, and not many miles from the present terminus. The new stretch is to be finished on July 1st.

The Works to be Pushed.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 8.—As a result of the war talk, those manufacturers of this place, who have contracts with the government for the manufacture of iron and steel to be used in the construction of naval vessels have been ordered to hurry along the work.

A Humiliating Failure.

TORONTO, April 8.—The Globe pronounces the trade mission to Washington a humiliating failure, and says the conduct of the members of the government, during and since the election, justifies the indifference of the American government in the matter.

To Prohibit Purse Seines.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 8.—The government will introduce legislation next session prohibiting the use of purse seines for fishing in Canadian waters, and will endeavor to secure an international arrangement prohibiting their entire use.

NEW DEFENCES FOR CANADA.

A Large Force of Canadian Militia to be Put in the Field.

CHICAGO, April 7.—A special from Ottawa says: Two important announcements confirm the previous statement that Gen. Herbert, the new commander-in-chief of the Canadian Militia, brought special instructions from the English war office to speedily strengthen the defenses of Canada and prepare for the necessity of putting a large force in the field.

The first is a request to the government to double the usual appropriation this year for drilling so that the entire force of 45,000 men can be thoroughly drilled in June. Never before has the number of men drilled exceeded 25,000.

Gen Herbert left to-day for Halifax to confer with Gen. Ross, commander of the Imperial troops in Canada, with respect to the defenses of the Atlantic coast, particularly Halifax, where a new fort has been constructed. One 32-ton gun recently arrived at Halifax from England, and three others are about to be shipped. These are the largest guns on this side of the Atlantic and add greatly to the strength of Halifax.

THE SLEEP FASTING MATCH.

Out of Six Contestants Only One Holds Out the Allotted Time.

DETROIT, April 6.—George Cunningham completed his sleeping fast to-day and won the prize of $500. He was the only one of the six contestants to keep awake the entire 168 hours. Four of his competitors had dropped out up to yesterday, and last night Townsend, an old-time pedestrian, also collapsed and now exhibits strong signs of insanity. Physcians think Cunningham can hardly escape serious mental impairment.

THE MANITOBA SCHOOL BILL.

It is Said, May Probably Lead to Annexation With Our Neighbor.

OTTAWA, April 8.—United Canada, a Catholic paper, will publish an article to-morrow stating that the Government, not having disallowed the Manitoba school bill, and the bill abolishing French in the legislature and courts, will weaken the tie between Canada and Great Britain in its most tender part, and will cause trouble in the older Provinces, such as Quebec, and they may retaliate. It insinuates that the action of the Government in not disallowing the bills will lead to annexation.

NEW WESTMINSTER.

New Canneries to be Erected—Presentation to the Rev. Mr. Robson, etc.

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 8.—Alex. Ewen is going to erect a big cannery on Lulu Island, near the present one. This makes the third cannery to be erected on the Fraser the present year. The other two are the Lulu Cannery Co., on the main river, and Roan Bros., on North Arm.

Rev. G. Robson and wife were presented yesterday with a fine silver tea service by Capt. Power, Moodyville, in recognition of their Christian work in the province.

The officers for the Mainland brigade of artillery are said to be:—Tatlow, Vancouver, colonel; Townley, Westminster, major; Lieut. Cotton, No. 1 battery, captain No. 1; Lieut. Port, No. 1 battery, captain No. 2 battery; W. A. Dewolf Smith, brigade surgeon; Davison, No. 1 brigade, Westminster, brigade sergeant-major. There will be two batteries in Westminster and two in Vancouver.

THE POPE AS A PROPHET.

Triumph of Democracy Foreseen by the Roman Catholic Church.

ALGIERS, April 7.—At Bismarck, in the presence of a concourse of Europeans and natives and a large number of bishops, Cardinal Lavigerie consecrated the Freres Arms du Sahara. The aim of the band is to combat slavery. When slavery is abolished the brothers will devote themselves to protecting the feeble, establishing in the Sahara centres for the care of the sick, and opening the interior to the civilized world. The Pope has already promised to devote his jubilee offerings to the work of abolishing slavery.

ROME, April 7.—Cardinal Lavigerie's toast at Algiers and the events which rapidly followed those striking utterances are still much discussed in church circles. Everything clearly indicates the decided drift of the Catholic Church toward modern democracy, but those who have enjoyed the confidence of Pope Leo know that he has always considered it of prime importance for the church to free itself from identification with the old dynastic parties, but it is necessary to move slowly, so as to wound royalist and aristocratic susceptibilities as little as possible. In all countries the Pope has favorite correspondents on whose advice he places special reliance, and who are charged with carrying out his personal policy. The Cardinal is one of these, and when, on October 9th last, Cardinal Lavigerie arrived in Rome, Pope Leo pledged him personally with the important religious and political mission of bringing the church in France into harmony with the republic. Lavigerie's speech brought a flood of letters to the Vatican. All France grew excited.

While the idea of the tax was suggested and approved by the Vatican, the form it took was not satisfactory. The ardent primate of Africa went somewhat beyond bounds. He attacked the old parties and taunted them with having been in alliance with Boulangism, but this vigorous language had a good side. It made all France understand unmistakably that the church intended to break with the past. There was no more equivocal meaning. The Pope said with regard to this: "The Cardinal has done right. It was necessary to strike a great blow in order to get out of this condition of hesitancy and confusion." The letter of Cardinal Rampolle to the Bishop of Tours repeated in gentler form the advice given in Algiers. The support of the whole episcopal body shows that the work has been successful. It will come to pass in spite of the opposition and passion of parties.

The Pope sees that the future belongs to the democracy. He is convinced that the United States will furnish a solution of the problems of European society, as well as ecclesiastical questions. He believes sincerely that Europe is marching towards democracy, with republican institutions as the predestined goal. In his character as pontiff he dare not say so, but Cardinal Lavigerie's address was an echo of close conversation with Leo. Observations which have reached the Vatican from the courts are proof that the prophetic voice has been heard and statesmen are warned.

WATCH THE FRONTIER.

AUSTRIAN TROOPS BEING CONCENTRATED FOR DEFENSE.

Germany Commences to Increase Her Frontier Forces—German Ministers Disappointed With the International Conference—The Kaiser and Queen to Meet.

LONDON, April 8—A Vienna dispatch says, that the Austrian government, not being reassured by Russia's denial of unfriendly designs, has already concentrated large bodies of troops at Tarnapolan, Brody, to watch the Galician frontier. The tenth corps, under Roinlander, has been reinforced by a partition. The First corps and Prince Windisch Groetz, of the Eleventh, is watching the frontier with a large force of cavalry. Count Hartman, formerly Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, who is now an officer in the Austrian service, has, it is stated, been called into consultation at the war office, with a view of utilizing his service in some important command. The Austrian authorities place great confidence in the abilities of the Prince. It is said the Austrian government have important information from Russia, which is the basis of its warlike preparations.

GERMANY INCRESING HER FRONTIER FORCES.

Apparently by some understanding with Austria, Germany has suddenly begun to increase her forces near the Russian frontier, and to hasten the completion of works intended to facilitate the transportation of troops. All the indications go to show that a Russian invasion would be met by formedable armies of the allies, whether first directed against Austria or Germany, both countries at once. On the French side, Germany has a series of fortresses that could not fail to delay invasion long enough to give ample time for the concentration of an army.

DISAPPOINTED WITH MINERS' CONFERENCE.

The German miners are represented to be deeply disappointed at the results of the Miners' International Conference. The wages are low and their hours long. They had looked forward to some common action in the interest of miners in general, that could not fail to benefit them. The movement has failed owing to the opposition of the English delegates to any tincture of socialism. Most of the miners in Germany are in sympathy with the Socialistic party and identify the cause of the workingmen with that of revolution.

THE BRAZILIAN GOVERNMENT

Likely to Reject Mr. Blaine's Reciprocity Treaty.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The World has the following cablegram from Rio Janerio: On the 16th of February last, your correspondent cabled from Bahia that fact that Secretary Blaine's reciprocity treaty with Brazil was not likely to be ratified, and that no binding action could be taken by the Brazilian government until the constitution was adopted, when it was safe to predict that the proposed treaty would be rejected. It was stated at the time that the mercantile community, consisting principally of English houses, would oppose the treaty to their utmost, in spite of the President, Dai Fonseca and his advisor's anxiety to see the trade relations between Brazil and the United States fostered and developed. What had been foreshadowed in the foreign announcement now bids fair to be realized. The constitution has been adopted and President Dai Fonseca has been sworn in as the chief magistrate of the United States of Brazil, while the foreign mercantile community is still unrelenting in its opposition to the ratification of Mr. Blaine's treaty. It is now deemed beyond a doubt that unless President La Fonseca forbids the Brazil Congress from taking any action in the matter, the rejection of the treaty is inevitable. President Da Fonseca continues to be animated with the most friendly sentiment towards the United States and ardently supports the treaty, but Brazil as a Government, is not acting in a fair spirit regarding those provisions of the treaty which remove the duty on wheat, coal and agricultural implements as it is levying port charges of 5 per cent. on these imports, under cover of what is styled as "expedientes," nominally, for a special dispatch on similar preference in the handling. This is a fraud and contrary to the terms of the treaty. The commissioners for the World's Fair at Chicago, have arrived here and have been presented to President Da Fonseca by United States Minister Conger, but no official action will be taken in the matter of Brazil's official presence at the fair until the Brazilian Congress meets.

Parkerson in the Witness Box.

NEW ORLEANS, April 8.—The grand jury is again investigating the lynching of the eleven Italians. Among the witnesses examined were W. D. Parkerson, the leader of the mob, and the Italian consul, Pasquale Corte, and his secretary. It is understood that the original list of the committee of safety that made the call for the meeting at the Clay statue was filed with the grand jury.

Their Cargoes Damaged.

LONDON, April 8.—The British ship Mount Carmel, from Oregon, has arrived at Bristol. She reports having experienced heavy weather, and her cargo is damaged. The British ship Kate F. Troop, from Oregon, has arrived at Dunkirk, with 1600 sacks of wheat badly damaged.

Kaiser and Queen to Meet.

THE INSTALLMENT PLAN.

An Aid to the Matrimonially Inclined.

How the Modern Credit System Facilitates the Establishment of a Household on Small Means.

The young man who plunges into matrimony in this town to-day, and is dependent solely on an income of two thousand dollars or so, finds it much easier to provide his bride with a comfortable home than did the young men who were called upon to do the same thing twenty and thirty years ago. In those days, says the New York Sun, it was practically impossible for the young man who hadn't any capital to fall back upon to buy and furnish a house unless he could find a man of wealth to go sponsor for him. He had to pay cash for every thing he got or go without. Now almost every thing can be bought upon the installment plan and with practically no security. The result is that the young married couple can start housekeeping fully equipped. A moderate weekly or monthly payment, which doesn't make a large hole in the Benedict's salary, is sufficient at the end of a couple of years to make him the absolute owner of his house and its belongings. Twenty years ago it was thought almost a disgrace to have a mortgage on one's house, but it is quite a common thing now. Lots can now be bought on payment of monthly sums as low as five dollars, and the young husband will find many real-estate concerns who will build a house for him in the neighborhood of New York, the payments on which won't be any larger than the rent which he would be obliged to pay for a house or flat in town. Then he won't have any trouble in getting furniture on credit for his house or for his flat, if he has decided to begin housekeeping in an apartment. There are plenty of furniture houses, the majority of whose business is done on the installment plan, and he will find it the easiest matter in the world to get a few hundred dollars' worth of furniture if he will agree to pay up within a year. The young man can obtain his tableware and crockery in the same convenient way, for the competition in the trade has driven houses to hold out these inducements to their customers. The young couple's library can be well stocked, too, on the installment plan, with sets of the best authors' works, if they only know where to go. Watches and jewelry can be obtained on weekly or monthly payments, a practice which has been in vogue for several years. In fact, there is no end to the articles which can be bought on the installment plan, provided they are of a durable nature. They remain the property of the seller, who holds a mortgage until the last payment is made.

The attempt to apply the installment plan to the sale of clothing hasn't been a brilliant success, because wearing apparel is apt to be worn out before the time for the final payment comes.

"Our business now," said a large furniture dealer on Park row the other day, "is almost entirely on the installment basis now. Twenty years ago every thing we sold was practically for cash, but now the house which doesn't sell on credit can't stay in the business very long. Young married folks are among our best customers, and every day we are helping to start a newly-wedded pair in housekeeping. It is the greatest boon to the young man of to-day that, without any outlay, he is able to be master of his own house instead of taking his chances in a boarding-house. It would surprise you to see the number of persons in all walks of life who utilize the installment system. Even men of moderate means prefer to buy very often on credit, and use their ready money in their business. Of course, in this business we have to be pretty good judges of human nature, but there are rarely very few whom we refuse. Risk necessarily accompanies the installment system, but where the volume of business is large a house can afford to carry accounts for a long time. Sometimes a person falls behind in his payments, but if he has a good excuse to give us, as sickness in his family, for instance, we always allow him more time. In fact there is practically no limit set. As long as a man shows an inclination to pay us we do not press him, and some accounts run indefinitely.

"Sometimes we look up a man or a woman who comes in to buy on credit, but as a rule we can rely on the judgment of our salesmen, who are pretty expert in sizing up the prospective customers. Some of our most interesting callers are the young brides that are to be, who often come bravely in alone to select the furniture for the household. They usually get along very well until it comes to giving their names. Then they hesitate, stammer and blush, because they don't know whether to give their maiden name or that of their prospective husband. It usually ends with the young lady confiding to the salesman a complete explanation of the important event, with the time that the wedding is to come off, who the bridemaids are to be, and where the wedding is to take place."

For Scrofula in every form Hood's Sarsaparilla is a radical, reliable remedy. It has an unequalled record of cures.

Wisdom's Violet Cream

Is the most exquisite preparation in the world for softening and whitening the hands and face. It is not only a substitute for, but in every respect superior to glycerine, cold cream, vaseline, and like preparations. Try it.

Tourist Spoons and Opera Glasses.

Mr. A. A. Clayton, of the Diamond Palace, Government street, has now completed and ready for inspection, a large stock of tourist spoons, suitable for souvenirs of Victoria. In the bowls of the spoons are etched scenes of the Gorge, Dunsmuir Castle, Mount Baker, and other pictures of Victoria scenery. He has also just received a consignment of beautiful opera glasses, in pearl and Russia leather, which are pronounced the finest ever imported to this city.

THE PEACOCK IN TRADITION.

Why Its Feathers Are Considered Unlucky.

"Here is an answer to the question why peacocks' feathers are unlucky, and I trust that it will satisfy the lady on whose behalf I made the inquiry," says a writer in London Truth. "Whether this be the true explanation I can not say, but I should think it will do as well as any other:

"A lady for whom I lately searched Notes and Queries in quest of information on the reason for the alleged unluckiness of peacocks' feathers, has forwarded me a cutting from the current number of your journal,

"'I found in Notes and Queries, series III., vol. viii., p. 528, a reference to Palgrave's 'Central and Eastern Arabia,' p. 326. We learn from that source that, according to Mahometan tradition, the peacock opened the wicket of Paradise to Satan, and received a very ample share of the punishment awarded to him.'"

"The Jersey Lily."

Is what Millais christened his famous portrait of that celebrated woman who since became familiarly known to the public by that expressive and appropriate name. In turn she has coupled her fame with that of the most celebrated toilette article in existence, as witness what she says:—

ANGLESEA COTTAGE, L.B., July 2

Gentlemen,—Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request, I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in cases of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sky.

Yours faithfully,
LILLIE LANGTRY.

THE LEGISLATURE.

THE MINERAL BILL READ A THIRD TIME AND PASSED.

Discussion on the Bill to Remunerate the Mining Commissioners—A Difference of Opinion on its Constitutionality—Bill to Consolidate the Debt.

TUESDAY, 7th April, 1891.

The House was called to order at 2 o'clock. Prayers by Rev. M. L. Rugg.

Petition from John Clapperton and others, residents of Nicola (re Nicola, Kamloops & Similkameen railway) was read and received.

The House went into committee, Royal Hospital Site bill. Mr. Booth in the chair.

The committee rose, reported the bill complete without amendment. Report was adopted, and the bill read a third time and passed.

Adjourned committee Mineral Bill, Mr. Foster in the chair. The committee reported the bill with amendments.

The House then went into committee of the whole to consider the message of the Lieut.-Governor with the bill to Prevent the Spread of Contageous Diseases among Horses and other Animals.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved to report the bill to the House.

Mr. Semlin called attention to the telegram in the papers saying the Dominion Government had disallowed the Manitoba act on the subject.

The Attorney-General remarked he did not know the grounds the Minister of Justice took for the disallowance of the Manitoba bill. He was under the impression the Dominion Government would allow this act.

The committee reported the message to the House, and the bill was read a first time.

The Supreme Court Bill was read a third time and passed.

The House went into committee on the message of the Lieut.-Governor with the bill to recompense the mining commission. Mr. Croft in the chair.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved to report the message to the House.

Hon. Mr. Beaven said the bill was in conflict with the principle of the constitution, which would not allow members of the House to accept remuneration from the Government. Nothing would sooner undermine the independence of the House than a method like this act. A member should be above influences of this kind. He regretted to see the measure brought in, and could only assume it brought in contrary to the wish of the member of West Kootenay, who was the member of the House upon that commission.

Hon. Mr. Davie did not think the bill affected the principle of the constitution alluded to by the leader of the Opposition. It was simply for the purpose of allowing the member for his expenses in connection with the commission. The bill was brought in because it was not right that a member should be placed in a position where any question could be raised against him; for this reason the whole matter was brought fairly before the House. He agreed that a member should be independent, but it was wrong to say that because a member belonged to the House the Government should be deprived of his services. He presumed the commission sent to Nanaimo did not pay their own railway fares or expenses. He also cited other cases. To carry this contention to its logical effect it would be illegal to have the lunch room in the House for the convenience of members. The principle of the constitution was to guard against members being in the employ of the Government, not to a case like the present one. He remembered when there was a statute on the books that no one who held emoluments from the Dominion Government could hold a seat in this House. A case happened where a member of the Government had done something on a particular occasion for the Dominion Government and this question had been raised. A bill had been brought in like the present one to legalise the course of that hon. gentleman.

Mr. Semlin held a similar view to the leader of the Opposition.

Mr. Brown said no doubt Hon. Mr. Beaven and Hon. Mr. Semlin were right as a general principle, but in this case they should look at the particular circumstance. The Government appointed a commission to straighten out the Mining act, and so far as he could see he thought the Government was wise, and it was proper that a member of the House should be one of the commission.

The member for West Kootenay comes down expecting to be employed a couple of weeks and finds it takes several months to complete the work. The bill will not more than pay the actual amount he is out of pocket. When a man neglected his business for two or three months in work of this kind he ought to have his expenses paid by the country. Therefore though he approved of the general principle, yet in this particular instance he was in favor of the bill.

Mr. Cotton thought it was not safe to depart from the principle that no member shall receive pay from the Government. It was better that a member should put up with temporary inconvenience rather than depart from that principle. He also considered that the House had put themselves somewhat in this same position by increasing the sessional allowance to members. For his part he would not accept his share and had always been opposed to the increase.

Mr. Hall thought this was only a special case to remunerate a member for some of the expenses he was actually out in doing work for the country.

Hon. Mr. Turner could not see how the bill trenched upon the independence of the members. No remuneration was intended. The member for Kootenay had distinctly refused such. It was only to recompense him for two months expenses before the House sat. In England committees similar to this had been appointed; when members of Parliament on them were paid their expenses. It was preposterous that a member should be put to expense for the country without being recompensed.

Mr. Kellie said he would ask the Attorney-General withdraw the bill He would far sooner lose his expenses than have members think he was infringing on the principle of liberty of the members.

Mr. Booth considered the bill should not be withdrawn. He certainly thought the gentleman entitled to his expenses; and that the question should be decided by the House.

Hon. Mr. Pooley said the bill should not be withdrawn. It was now the principle that was before the House. If the member for West Kootenay did not see fit to accept the recompense well and good; but the principle should be considered by the House.

Mr. Milne thought they should stand by the constitution.

Hon. Mr. Davie considered that it was not the individual case, but the principles they must look at. If there had been an understanding between the Government and the members of the commission that pay was attached to the position it would have come under the objection raised to it. The House, however, was entirely independent of the Government, and could make a grant to recompense a member if they chose The Government considered it an act of justice to the hon. gentlemen to bring in the bill to recompense him for the amount of the expenses he was out in connection with the commission. They were only following the course pursued in similar cases in England. The House had the right to say what the rights and privileges of the members should be. The increase of sessional allowance to members was precisely similar to this. Although the member for Vancouver said he would not take his additional allowance, people would not think a bit more of him for it. His enemies would only say he was making an ass of himself (laughter).

Mr. Cotton said this additional allowance was a question for every man's conscience to decide. If the principle of the constitution was not infringed, why bring this bill at all. If the principle was involved the bill should not be brought in at all.

Hon. M. Beaven said, under our constitution the Government had to assume the responsibility of the bill, and could not claim that the House, not the Government were making the recompense. The 28th section of the constitution was very clear on the point involved. He was very glad that the member for West Kootenay had asked the Attorney-General to withdraw the bill. He gave him great credit for his manliness in doing so. The Government should accede to this request.

The motion to report to the House was carried.

The committee rose and reported to the House. Report adopted on division: Against—Messrs. Milne, Beaven, Cotton, Semlin, Grant, Sword—6.

For—Messrs. Smith, Keith, Baker, Davie, Vernon, Eberts, Stoddart, Booth, Hall, Nason, Pooley, Turner, Martin, Croft, Hunter, Rogers, Anderson, Fletcher—18.

The Bill was presented and read a first time.

Hon. Mr. Davie presented a message from the Lieut.-Governor with an act to amend the constitution act. To be considered to-morrow.

The House went into committee of the whole on the message of the Lieut.-Governor with the bill to authorize the issue of inscribed stock. Mr. Anderson in the chair.

The committee reported and the report was adopted and bill read a first time.

The House went into committee of the whole on the message of the Lieut.-Governor in respect to the debt consolidation bill. Committee reported; report adopted and bill read a first time.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Vernon the Land bill was recommitted, Mr. Kitchen in the chair.

Hon. Mr. Turner moved an amendment to section 4 reducing the quantity of land that could be sold from 160 acres to 80 acres. This was carried after some discussion.

The House rose for recess at 5:30.

EVENING SESSION.

The House, after recess, met at 7:45 and went into committee on the Land bill, Mr. Kitchen in the chair.

Mr. Sword moved that land might be pre-empted in timber leases, on land not containing more than 10,000 feet of milling timber per acre, provided there is an area not less than 40 acres of such land in one block.

The amendment was finally withdrawn to bring in on report.

Committee rose and reported the bill with amendments.

Report Placer Mining bill was adopted; bill read a third time and passed.

Report Provincial Tax bill was adopted; bill read a third time and passed.

Second reading of Act for the protection of cattle.

Hon. Mr. Davie explained the object was to make railway companies responsible for killing cattle on their lines of railway, whether the railways were subject to the Provincial or Dominion railway statutes. He held the Province had the right to deal with property and civil rights. Unless railways fence their lines they should be responsible.

Second reading carried.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved the second reading of the British Columbia Railway Bill. This was the sister bill to the last bill. This places beyond all doubt and question that railways be required to fence their lines. The second reading was carried.

Hon. Mr. Davie moved the second reading Methodist Church Bill. Carried.

Committee on the Toad Mountain and Nelson Tramway Bill. Mr. Stoddart in the chair.

The committee rose, reported progress, and asked leave to sit again.

Committee Okanagan Land and Development Bill. Mr. Keith in the chair.

The committee rose and reported the bill complete with amendments.

The House adjourned at 11.40 p.m.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW,

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION.

The proposal of the Government to recoup the mining commissioners, one of whom is a member of the House, will be, if carried out, a serious blow at the independence of Parliament. We are quite sure that Mr. KELLIE has not been a party to the offer of a bribe, and that his attention has only to be directed to the serious character of the act to insure his indignant disavowal of a proceeding, which, once commenced, will be repeated whenever it suits the exigencies of the Government. The argument of the Attorney-General that the payment of the expenses of a member of the House, while engaged on special commission work outside of his legislative duties, is the same in principle as the payment of sessional allowance, is not deserving of attention. The difference lies in the fact that one is unconstitutional, while the other is constitutional. The mining commission, we admit, devoted a great deal of time and incurred considerable expense—possibly more than was necessary—in revising the mining laws, but it was known to the Government before the commission was appointed that a member of the House could not receive pay for such services. The attempt of the Government to override a provision of the constitution designed to guard against cases like the present is an insult to the representatives, and a dangerous blow at their independence. Let this precedent be established, and where will the end be?

THE FOLLY OF SIGNED ARTICLES.

The fool-killer is badly needed in the State of Minnesota. The Minnesota Senate passed a bill which enacted that all articles, editorials, items and written accounts which are published in any paper, magazine or pamphlet, giving any account of the political, official, personal or social act of any human being, "living or dead," shall be subscribed by the full name of the person writing or preparing the same. Nor is it "redeemed in its intrinsic and utter absurdity," says the St. Paul Pioneer Press, "by the amendment finally tacked on to the original draft, providing that it shall apply only to articles, or items, or accounts reflecting on a person's character." The Press proceeds to show how transparently absurd is the bill, and gives in detail what may, and invariably does happen to an article before it appears in print, which we give for the benefit of people who experience a curiosity to know something of the inner working of newspaper offices. Says the Press:—

"It often happens that several persons are engaged in the preparation of a single article, and when they get through with it, if a local report, it is probably cut down and revised by the city editor; when it reaches the managing editor he may require it to be re-written. If it contains matter important enough to be submitted to the editor-in-chief it may again have to be revised by his order, or by himself. It would, therefore, be impossible to identify any of the persons engaged in the preparation of the original article as having written, composed, indited or prepared it. Take any issue of the Pioneer Press, for example. Its contents are usually made up of contributions from perhaps two or three hundred persons, in all parts of the world, in the form of telegrams, letters, local or general items, news reports, editorial articles and paragraphs, etc. If it were possible to append the name of the writer of each of these contributions, think of the effect of the interfusion of these hundreds of names all over every column of every page."

"It is very seldom that any of these contributions appear in the form in which they were originally received. The telegrams, unless of special importance, are cut down or condensed by the telegraph editor and then revised by the night editor. All local reports go through the same process of revision by the city editor. All news matter passes through the hands of the managing editor and is always subject to revision or change by his orders, or if important enough to be submitted to the editor-in-chief, is liable to further revision by his order. No doubtful matter is permitted to go into the paper except by authority of the editor-in-chief. All his subordinates are subject to that authority. They are working in pursuance of his orders, as his paid agents and instruments, to carry out his ideas, his views, his policy. They are obliged to conform to the rules laid down by him. They have no views, policy or opinions of their own, except as they conform to those of the editor. They have and can have no responsibility whatever, in law or fact, for the work they do, not for themselves, but for their employers. To require them to sign their names to any articles or items prepared by them as a part of the working machinery of the newspaper would be as absurd as to pass a law requiring the names of the workmen in a shoe factory to stamp their names on the different parts of each shoe upon which they were employed."

TRADES VS. PROFESSIONS.

There is no dissent from the numerous writers on the subject, that the tendency of young men to rush into the professions instead of into the mechanical trades, is unwise and must in the end work almost irreparable injury. The professions are actually crowded, jammed, while it is a fact, that in the mechanical trades there is a fair demand for skillful help. No good mechanic is idle, whereas, of the multitude of lawyers, doctors, dentists, bookkeepers, etc., which are yearly being turned out, it is to be presumed that a large percentage depend for a living on the bounty of their friends. Of course young men are not to be blamed for seeking to enter the so-called higher professions, and particularly when it is borne in mind that society concedes to the exemplar of a profession a higher social status than it does to the artisan. But why should this be so? Are the possibilities of the profession of medicine greater than the possibilities of the profession of the machinist? Is there not a possible ERICKSON in every machinist, and is there not a possible CHRISTOPHER WREN in every carpenter? Young men, however, fail to look at it that way. The "boiled shirt" of professional life is patrician; the oily shirt of mechanics is plebian, and so the professions are filled with less than mediocrity while the mechanics are begging for brains.

Parents should take a second thought, a very sober, serious, searching second thought in the determination of an occupation for their children. Certainly they should not be influenced by false pride. It is not the profession that makes the man. We hear of men being an adornment to their profession. Why? Simply because they have added something to it; have utilized it in some way that has redounded to human good. It is doubtful, however, whether preaching will have the effect to deter young men from seeking professional careers. The professional fever cannot be abated by mere talk. It must run its course the same as the febrile diseases of the body. Would be professionals must be starved into wisdom; must learn by hard experience that there is as much honor and profit in a trade well followed as in a professional life. Success in either depends not in being a lawyer or machinist, but in the amount of intelligent application that is brought to bear.

While we cannot subscribe to the McKinley bill, we are agreed, that if, as the St. Paul Pioneer Press says, the big sugar refineries have reached an agreement and "divided territory," and will, consequently, control the price of sugar, there certainly is not much in the argument in favor of McKinleyism that a $60,000,000 burden has been taken off the people by the admission of sugar free. This sugar syndicate, doubtless, will steal from the people twice $60,000,000 during the ensuing years, and yet the combinesters will talk themselves hoarse over the iniquity of the Farmers' Alliance Asked what they thought of "Looking Backward," these sugar philanthropists would take on a reminiscent air and declare it a humbug! But they are exemplifying the Bellamy idea every day. They are educating the people to believe that Bellamyism is possible. Nationalists might well exclaim: "Let the good work go on!"

Fire Department Notes.

F. C. Stover, of the Gampwell fire alarm system, who has been to New Westminster conferring with the council of that city in regard to his fire alarm system, left for San Francisco last night.

Chief Kellogg, of the Seattle fire department, has submitted the following estimate of the cost of the department for the ensuing year:

Salaries for twelve months	$81,600 84
Feed	7,000 00
Coal	5,220 00
Horseshoeing	854 00
Repairs	1,200 00
Miscellaneous	2,200 00
Grand total for twelve months	$98,981 84

Thos. Watson was engaged in stringing the insulated wires for the fire alarm system.

The white streamers will fly over the engine house after eight o'clock this evening.

Members' Social.

The regular member's social of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the rooms, Broad street, tonight. A fine concert has been prepared. Among those to take part are Mrs. Gospel, Miss Wolfe, Miss Lawson, Miss Kingham, Miss Twiss, Rev. A. Beanlands, Messrs. Kent, Floyd, Keith, Rhodes, Roberts, Morrow, Boyd and Heath. The programme will include readings, piano selections, songs, selections on violin and autoharp. All young men are welcome.

The Bisley team has been instructed to report to the secretary before the 25th inst. It is understood that the appointment of the commanding officer and adjutant was left with the chairman of the council, Col. Ouimet. Weston and Blacklock are prominently spoken of as the probable appointees.

The Victoria Cricket Club will turn out in force on Saturday at 2 o'clock for practice on the hill.

The World's Great Fair.

The proposition to have a model of the Beaver at the Chicago great fair is a good one, but the owners think to have the original itself would be a better one. It is the general opinion that there should be sufficient patriotism and pride in the Government to show the world the first steamer that rounded Cape Horn, and that British Columbia possesses such a historic relic. The owners of the vessel have made a formal offer to the directors of the world's fair, but nothing has yet come of it.

Lecturing vs. Writing.

Robert J. Burdette, the humorist, says he no longer does any newspaper work, but gives all his time to the lecture platform. He said he made a newspaper publisher an offer lately, but he did not seem to see the advantage of it. "I told him," said Mr. Burdette, "that if he would hire me to write an article, and then publish it over and over every day, and pay me the price of a lecture every time he published it, I would give up the platform altogether. He was inconsiderate enough to say that he was afraid it might grow stale in the course of a year or so, but that is just the difference between lecturing and grinding out newspaper copy. The dear public will stand almost anything from the platform, but when they unfold their paper they expect to find everything fresh every evening. And they generally get it."

A GOOD PROPOSITION.

Suggestion to Extend to President Harrison the Hospitality of Victoria.

It has been proposed, and the proposition meets with universal favor, that as President Harrison will reach the coast and come to Seattle about the end of the month, the city extend an invitation to him to do it the honor of becoming its guest for such time as he may be disposed to spend here. The council will no doubt consider the matter this evening and discuss as to the best steps to take for entertaining America's chief man should he come here. It is more than likely that H.M.S. Melpomene, now at Esquimalt, would be authorized to conduct the President and party from Seattle and return.

BOUND IN HYMEN'S BONDS.

Wedding of Miss Brady to Mr. George C. Shaw at the Cathedral To-day.

A few minutes before the time of going to press, a very interesting and pretty ceremony was performed at Christ Church Cathedral, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Brady, eldest daughter of Mr. James Brady, M. E., of this city, to Mr. George C. Shaw. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. A. Beanlands.

About four o'clock the usual flutter took place among the expectant gathering in the church, and the bride appeared looking remarkably well in a rich, heavy twill silk costume embroidered tastefully with white silk and silver, the latter casting a soft reflection on the delicate dress material. The bride's veil fell gracefully over a wreath of orange blossoms. A full court train finished the skirt. The absence of any but ordinary ornaments if possible heightened the general effect of a really artistic costume.

The bridesmaids, Misses Emma and Eva Loewen, were dressed in white embroidered with silver, and wore long veils draped from hyacinthe wreaths, and carrying handsome bouquets of hyacinthes and other spring flowers.

Two sweet-looking little misses filled the offices of assistant bridesmaids, Miss Evelyn Tilton and Miss Gertrude Flummerfelt, dressed in Gretchen suits and silver trimming, surmounted by long white veils. They carried sags of lilies and other flowers.

Little Master Campbell Brady, brother of the bride, acted as page; he was dressed in a suit of white satin.

On approaching the chancel, the junior bridesmaids opened two silver gates, trimmed with sweet-smelling flowers, and admitted the bride and bridegroom, that were soon to be, to the rails where the spiritual knot was to be made.

Mr. Geo. C. Shaw looked very well, attended by Mr. Maynard H. Cowan as best man, supported by Mr. D. Boscowitz.

The ceremony was soon over that made the twain one, and the gates once more were opened, when the bride and bridegroom entered on a path of flowers to the vestry.

The organ pealed out the wedding march, and the bells rang out their rejoicing sounds, as the happy pair adjourned to the home of the bride, where a collation was partaken of by a large number of friends and relations. The house was a picture of floral wealth, arranged with artistic taste. The bride was most fortunate in the matter of presents.

Steamer City of Kingston will bear the newly wedded pair away this evening for their honeymoon trip to California.

Young Men's Christian Association.

There was a gathering of business men and prominent association workers from various parts of the Pacific northwest in the room of the local organization last evening. Tea was served by the ladies central committee, after which the regular meeting of the executive committee was held. From the various reports received the work in this section of the country was shown to be in a most flourishing condition, a number of cities having building schemes well under way. The summer institute to be held on Puget Sound some time in July also bids fair to prove a decided success. The next meeting of the committee will be held at Tacoma.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT.

(Before Mr. Justice Drake.)

Fletcher v. Hayward.—This was an action brought to compel the defendant to sign a joint deed (which had been executed by D. E. Campbell) of a piece of land, which had been conveyed by Campbell to the defendant, the defendant offering to sign an absolute conveyance to the plaintiff in his own name.

At the conclusion of the plaintiff's case Mr. Fell moved for a non-suit.

Mr. Pooley replied.

His lordship granted the motion, stating:—I think this action has been instituted simply through temper. This is an action brought and instituted by Johnson until the plaintiff ascertained the fact at that subsequent period, the date of which is unknown; instituted by Martha Fletcher, without her knowledge and consent on the 10th December, the day on which Mr. Luxton, who is the solicitor for the defendant Hayward attends at Mr. Fell's office with the deed and a cheque or cash for the alleged balance due on the purchase money, and he wants that particular deed executed, there and then. Now, a vendor is not bound to put aside all his other business for the purpose of executing a deed there and then. The usual practice is, between professional men particularly, to leave a deed to afford an opportunity for perusing it, and seeing that it is in accordance with the agreement, which the evidence shows was not in the possession of the defendant at the time. The evidence shows that it was in the possession of Johnson, who had apparently both copies of the agreement. The first thing that Mr. Fell, or any other professional man would have to do, would be to see the agreement, and compare it with the deed tendered for execution. If they agree, he would then see his client, and get him to execute the deed. All that takes time; it is not done in a minute; and it is the solicitor's bounden duty to advise his client before any conveyance is executed. It appears from the evidence here that, so far from this being done, Mr. Luxton, according to the instructions he received, brought this deed in with the sum of $107.00, and said: "Here is the balance of the purchase money—now execute the deed." Mr. Luxton admits that he was told at the time that Mr. Hayward was perfectly willing to execute a conveyance of the whole property, but, as he was at that time the sole owner of the property, he would execute in his own name; he did not want Campbell's name joined in it. On the 6th December, prior to that time, there is a letter written by the defendant's solicitor offering to give the plaintiff all that she could possibly acquire—that is, an absolute conveyance of the property which she purchased. If the conveyance when it came, was imperfect, a requisition on title could be raised, and any steps could be taken which an ordinary conveyancer would take in order to see that the title was such as a purchaser would wish to take. Instead of that, on the 10th December, after ascertaining, apparently, the fact that a conveyance had been made by Campbell to Hayward, because they have seen the application on record, and that under the law of the court is treated as evidence of the title under which registration will date back to, they have a writ issued immediately, at all events, on the same day. I think that is almost an abuse of the process of the court; the whole of these proceedings are rendered entirely valueless because the plaintiff got all she could possibly have acquired, and it would only have required a little consideration to get a conveyance. It was therefore not necessary to go on with this action. I think there has been no demand, and no refusal to entitle the court to give a decision in favor of the plaintiff, and I grant the motion for a nonsuit with costs. Mr. C. E. Pooley for plaintiff; Mr. Thornton Fell for defendant.

THE FULL COURT.

Present Mr. Justices Crease, McCreight, Walkem and Drake.

The case of Davies vs. McMillan was up in the Full Court this morning, when Hon. A. N. Richards, Q.C., and H. D. Helmcken, on behalf of the defendant, applied for a rule nisi calling upon the plaintiff to show cause why a new trial should not be granted. (1) On grounds misdirection; (2) verdict against weight of evidence; (3) damages excessive; (4) on account of the absence of Mr. Green, through illness, a material witness for the defendant. The court, after hearing the argument of counsel, granted the rule nisi, returnable on the 17th inst.

THEY HAVE RESUMED WORK.

The Moorewood Miners, Being Well Protected, Resume Work.

MT. PLEASANT, Pa., April 8.—Work was again commenced at Moorewood this morning with an increased number of men, which will doubtless be doubled by to-morrow. The workmen feel reassured of their safety by the presence of the National Guards and are working with a will. Nothing of special interest occurred during the night. Early this morning several of the strikers were seen lurking around outside of the picket lines, but it is supposed they were spies, as every movement of the militia is being watched and reported at the strikers' headquarters. This action of the strikers prompts the feeling that if the soldiers were withdrawn the strikers would at once seize upon the coke plants. Last night Captain Lorar and part of his firing squad paid a visit to the Tenth regiment headquarters, where a friendly investigation of the recent shooting was held. It was fully established to the satisfaction of Col. Hawkins that the men were not in uniform, or that no state equipments were used. The report that the tenants of the company's houses at Moorewood were to be evicted, is groundless. No further arrests were made up to noon to-day. The report that the strikers were purchasing dynamite for the purpose of destroying property and frightening the soldiers, is untrue, so far as can be ascertained. Frick's works at Leith have started up with a small force of men under the protection of 20 deputies.

THE KING OF SHOWMEN DEAD.

A Short Resume of His Life and Achievements.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 7.—P. T. Barnum died at 6:32 this evening.

Phineas Taylor Barnum, who was probably the best known man of his age, was born in Bethel, in the state in which he died, in July, 1810; and in early youth displayed the qualities of shrewdness and ability to read human nature that have marked his entire career. When nineteen years old, Barnum was in the newspaper business, editing and owning "The Herald of Freedom." As an editor he was inclined to give full expression to his opinions regardless of the feelings of those written about, and in consequence he was at one time imprisoned for sixty days upon being convicted of libel. This had the effect of somewhat diverting his steps from the paths of literature, and on visiting Philadelphia in 1834, an incident occurred which robbed the newspaper world of Barnum as an editor and placed him in the particular sphere for which he had been ordained by nature. It was while in Philadelphia that he saw on exhibition a colored slave woman named Joyce Heth, advertised as the nurse of George Washington, one hundred and sixty-one years old. Her owner exhibited an ancient-looking, time-colored bill of sale, dated 1727. Mr. Barnum bought her for $1000, advertised her far and wide, and his receipts soon reached $1500 per week. Within a year, Joyce Heth died, and a post mortem examination showed that the Virginia planter had added at least 80 years to her age. Having thus acquired a taste for the show business, Mr. Barnum spent the next few years of his life traveling through the South with small companies, which were generally unsuccessful. In 1841 he purchased Scudder's museum—though at the time he hadn't a dollar he could call his own,—named it Barnum's museum, and by adding to it novel curiosities and advertising it freely, he was able to pay for it the first year. With Tom Thumb, and afterwards with the Swedish Nightingale, Jenny Lind, he made fortunes, and in 1855 he returned to his Oriental villa at Bridgeport, which he had built in 1846. He expended large sums in improving that city; built up the city of East Bridgeport, made miles of streets, and planted thousands of trees therein. He encouraged manufactures to move to his new city, which has since been united with Bridgeport, and in 1857, to encourage a large company to locate there, became so impressed with confidence in their wealth and certain success, that he endorsed their notes for nearly $1,000,000. The company went into bankruptcy, wiping out Barnum's property. He returned to the show business, collected a great travelling museum and menagerie, introduced rare equestrian and athletic performances, which, after the addition of a representation of the Ancient Roman hippodrome races, he called "P. T. Barnum's Greatest Show on Earth." Mr. Barnum has been four times a member of the Connecticut legislature, and mayor of Bridgeport, which city owes to his generosity its finest public park. His other benefactions have been large and numerous, among them a stone museum building presented to Tuft's college, near Boston, Mass., filled with specimens of natural history. The world will long remember him as author, lecturer and politician, but longer still as the king of all modern showmen.

The Chilian Revolution.

PANAMA, April 8.—A passenger who has just arrived in this city by a steamer from Valparaiso, declares that the revolutionists are making progress. They assert in that city that the sentiment in favor of the revolutionists is becoming very strong. It was generally expected when they went there that on the arrival of the fleet, the troops now adhering to the Balmaceda government would repounce their allegiance and go over to the revolutionists, and that Balmaceda realizes his cause is waning, from the fact that he is recruiting his forces from the prisons. The reports of the loss of life and property, resulting from the revolutionary uprising, which have reached the outside world, the passengers declare are much exaggerated.

A Well Spent Evening.

Mirth and merriment reigned supreme last evening in the St. Andrew's church lecture hall, which was crowded to excess, the occasion being a concert given by the boys of the church in aid of the Chinese Mission. The programme was a capital one, the piece de resistance being a farce entitled Puff vs. Alby, in a suit for libel. The court looked very learned and imposing in their wigs and gowns. His lordship Judge William Allan looked very grave, and the lawyers' bar, both sides, tried to tell the truth in as many different ways as real lawyers do, and yet not tell the truth at all. Both sides were right. Mr. Alf. Anderson for the plaintiff, and Mr. Wm. Finlayson for the defendant, would have brought tears of envy to the eyes of the celebrated Charles Buzfuz, while the witnesses all distinguished themselves in their efforts to get away from answering the lawyers without being guilty of contempt. Mr. Stanly Humphrey was an adept in this, and in the character of an Irish witness he created roars of laughter. Mr. P. McLeod in the "Tar's Farewell" was remarkably good, and was treated to a rousing encore. Miss Constance Pittock is a sweet little tot, "about so high." She's very small, very quaint and graceful, and a born elocutionist. The little lady "brought down the house with her recitation. Following is the programme:

Virginius.

Virginius was presented to a fair audience last night. It is considered Mr. Warde's strongest play, and we can well believe that his impersonation of the Roman centurion it would be hard to excel. The play has been called the "best acting tragedy that has been seen on the modern stage," and the manner in which it was presented last night won for it the commendation of being the "best acted tragedy that has been given on the stage of the Victoria." The play is simple, depicting firs., the happy home life of Virginius; the betrothal of his loved daughter; and, finally, the father's passion, grief, and final madness, when, summoned from the field of battle, he finds his daughter claimed as a slave at the instigation of Appius Claudius, with whom he pleads in vain for her restoration. All the varying emotions were vividly portrayed, and in the fifth and sixth acts, when the father, to save the honor of his child, slays her in the forum, and subsequently avenges his wrongs the pathos is simply indescribable. Mr. Warde was well supported, although Mrs. Bowers was not in the caste. To-night will be the last appearance, when Macbeth will be presented. The characters of Macbeth and his wife are admirably suited to the physical qualities of Mr. Warde and Mrs. Bowers, while their ability to act them has been demonstrated on every stage in America. The New York Herald of Oct. 10, 1886, speaking of Mrs. Bowers' Lady Macbeth, says, "There was a dignity in her tread, a gleam in her eye, and an amount of concentrated resolve and passion in her voice which fitted well the part. Her acting was marked by a most intelligent comprehension of the meaning of the lines, as well as most excellent powers of delivery. Her personation was an excellent one, rising at times to full tragic power." The other parts of the caste are strong and powerful, and the ever popular Shakespearian tragedy will no doubt be presented in a manner never witnessed before in Victoria.

Okanagan Ripples.

Farmers are again seeding, and a much greater acreage will be sown.

Vernon is going to be quite lively this summer, and a good deal of building will be done. Smith's sawmill is now running. The sawmills will be kept busy to furnish enough lumber. A mill is to be erected shortly at the Mission by Lequime & Gooden.

A charge against Arthur B. Knox, rancher, at Mission Valley, was investigated for setting fire to hay stacks of Thos. Ellis, March 27, before Messrs. Thos. Wood, Alf. Botell, and Fred. Brent, justices of the peace. Mr. Wm. Cochrane appeared for the prosecution. The accused was sent up for trial, but was released on furnishing bail for $1000. The case will be tried at Kamloops in two months' time. Mr. Knox is one of the well-to-do ranchers in Mission Valley.

Old Indian Signs.

About five miles above Morven, says the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, is a mystery which the people of that community can not explain. In a hummock near the river are two complete circles, one ninety and the other one hundred and forty feet in diameter, the smaller circle inside the larger. These circles, which are much like those left by a circus performance, are completely barren of vegetation of all kinds. These circles have been there since the recollection of the oldest citizen, and none know how or when they came there. It must be that they are Indian signs, relics of by-gone days, when the savage warrior was lord of all he surveyed.

For Wood-Workers.

A wood-carving machine which possesses many radical improvements has been brought out. The machine is designed specially for use in furniture factories and in car, organ and piano factories and other establishments where wood-carving is done. It will carve four duplicate pieces any length at one operation if not over seven and one-half inches wide, or it will make two duplicate pieces any length if not over fifteen inches wide.

The Cradle of Kings.

All of Emperor William's Hohenzollern ancestors born since 1792, as well as himself, his brothers and sisters, have been rocked in the same cradle. This ancient family couch is a clumsy affair of oak and richly carved. Around the four sides is cut in Roman letters the text: "He hath given his angels charge over thee, and they keep thee in all thy ways."

Facts are Stubborn Things

So is Bad Blood. The difference between them is that a fact is here to stay. Bad Blood can only stay until Burdock Blood Bitters is used, then it must go. It takes facts to prove this to your satisfaction, and we give them to you every time we catch your eye. Here is one of them. Don't throw the paper down, but read this letter from Mr. Fred. Taylor, a detective of Winnipeg. We present his portrait, together with that of his little daughter, mentioned in his letter.

FATHER AND DAUGHTER.

ONE OF THE GALLANT 90TH BATT.

DEAR SIRS,—Having felt out of order for some time, and having no energy or appetite, blotches on legs, tumor on neck—arising from impure blood, doctors doing me no good, I was induced to buy some B.B.B. I was very much against patent medicines at the time, having tried so many, but after using two bottles I began to get better, and at the fourth bottle was completely well and around again. I believe in B.B.B. now, I tell you. I send you a photo of myself and little daughter, Lilly. B.B.B. cured her of nasty blisters which came out on her lips. Yours thankfully,

F. TAYLOR,

WHITE ROCK, B.C.

This Townsite is situated on Semiahmoo Bay, and is the only deep water seaport between the International Boundary Line and Vancouver, B. C.

It will probably be the Mainland starting-point of the Victoria, Saanich & New Westminster Railway. It is now the outlet for the finest agricultural district in British Columbia.

The C.P.R. has made a survey of a line from Vancouver direct to this point. The Royal City Planing Mills Company has built a substantial wharf here, and has established a lumber yard, which supplies the farmers of this district.

A handsome hotel has been erected and building is going on rapidly.

Several influential and far-sighted corporations have acquired large tracts of land surrounding this Townsite.

Water front lots can now be obtained at low prices.

To introduce this property, we are placing one block of lots on the market for disposal by monthly instalments at nominal figures.

CITY AND PROVINCIAL.

NAVAL NOTES.

Serious Defects in the Warspite---Coming North to go into Dock.

The Nymph left Esquimalt this morning for a cruise to Westminster. Vancouver and other points. She will be away two or three weeks.

It is stated on good authority that the Warspite, flagship of Rear-Admiral Bentham, on the Pacific station, has developed very serious structural defects which will necessitate the vessel being under repairs for upwards of six months. The Warspite is under orders to proceed to Esquimalt for that purpose, an order that could only have been given in case of dire necessity during the present state of affairs in Chili. The Warspite is one of our newest first class cruisers, and was commissioned at Chatham on February 14, 1890. It is considered probable that an official of the constructor's department will shortly be dispatched to Esquimalt to superintend the repairs of the vessel.

A correspondent in the Pacific squadron writes: The Acorn arrived at Valparaiso on the 2nd February, and reported having seen the Chilian war vessels proceeding to the north. The Daphne and Espiegle are now in the southern division of the station, the Espiegle was signalled on the Warspite having Callao, but the two ships did not communicate. The Champion has now left the port, presumably to keep in touch with the Chilian squadron, which has not been seen for some days, since being sighted about four miles from the harbor, proceeding north, possibly to recapture Iquiqui.

They'll Amalgamate.

The upholsterers, cabinet makers and house furnishers will meet at the Trades' and Labor club to-morrow evening, to consider the advisability of forming a union in connection with their particular trade. The meeting will take place at 8 o'clock.

Ask Your Friends

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum, etc. Truly, the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsment of its army of friends.

Two Important By-Laws.

This evening's meeting of the city council will be an interesting one and one of importance to Victoria, as besides the usual routine work, the by-law introduced by Ald. Renouf to raise $1,000,000 to bonus a railway line into Victoria will be read a first time. The by-law to raise $25,000 to assist the B. C. Agricultural Society to build a new hall and fix up their grounds, will also be read a first time.

The City's Workshop.

Those residents who live near the corner of Pandora and Vancouver streets have always been unfortunate. It seems, as regards a noisy location, as they have always had to contend with the school boys. But what will it be this summer, when the workshops that the city has erected there are in full blast? The new buildings recently erected there by the city are large and no doubt useful, but it hardly seems right to put them right in the residential part of the city.

Street Cars to Oak Bay.

The Tramway Company are asking for tenders for grading the street car line from Oak Bay avenue and Cadboro Bay road to Oak Bay, a distance of one and a half miles. Other tenders are asked for 2800 railroad ties. The particulars will be found in the advertising columns. This move shows that both the street car company and the Improvement Company are in earnest over the work. Hon. Mr. Higgins allows no grass to grow on any work he undertakes.

Mothers!

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

The Orphans' Friends.

The ladies' committee thankfully acknowledge the following donations in March: Clothing—Mrs. Pemberton, "The Little Helpers of the Poor," (Circle of King's Daughters), Miss A. McDonald, Mrs. Prior Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. McConnan; provisions—Victoria Athletic Club, Mrs. G. Hammond; 20 bottles jams, and eggs—A Friend; fruit—J. P. Burgess, Mrs. M. Carmichael; 200 hot cross buns—Schmith & Baumann; 43 Easter eggs—Little Helpers of the Poor, King's Daughters; cakes—The Foresters, Sunday School Convention; milk, daily—Mr. Knowles.

Clear to the Park.

Through the liberality of Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge and Dr. Powell the tramway company have secured the right of way to the park from Toronto to Simcoe street; and it now only remains with the property owners of the district whether the line shall run via Niagara or Simcoe street. If Niagara street is widened, in all probability the tracks will be laid through there. The company propose to convey the property to the city on terms to be submitted to the council. The offer will probably come forward to-night. The extent of the property is about six and a half town lots.

A Difficult Mission Field.

Rev. Father Barnum, who came out from the east a few days ago to undertake missionary work in Alaska, left last evening by the Kingston en route for San Francisco, where he will take the direct steamer for the north. It is expected that three of the Sisters will follow him in the course of a few days and join in the good work among the Indians of the icy regions. This will make the number of Sisters six now laboring in this field. Rev. Father Barnum is a man of very good personal qualities, deep piety and learning, to which is added the great accomplishment of being able to make himself generally popular.

Concert To-Night.

The concert to be given in the rooms of the Y.M.C.A. this evening promises to fulfil all that has been predicted of it. The very best talent has had the management in hand, and a thoroughly enjoyable time is expected.

"Ocean Jottings."

Mr. Harry Forester, one of the passengers out by the steamer West Indian, has published a neat little volume of the voyage, and calls it "Ocean Jottings." Makes the Weak Strong

The marked benefit which people in run down or weakened state of health derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves the claim that this medicine "makes the weak strong." It does not act like a stimulant, imparting fictitious strength from which there must follow a reaction of greater weakness than before, but in the most natural way Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes creates an appetite, purifies the blood, and, in short, gives great bodily, nerve, mental and digestive strength.

That Tired Feeling

"I derived very much benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which I took for general debility. It built me right up, and gave me an excellent appetite." ED. JENKINS, Mt. Savage, Md.

Fagged Out

"Last spring I was completely fagged out. My strength left me and I felt sick and miserable all the time, so that I could hardly attend to my business. I took one bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it cured me. There is nothing like it." R. C. BRODLE, Editor Enterprise, Belleville, Mich.

Worn Out

"Hood's Sarsaparilla restored me to good health. Indeed, I might say truthfully it saved my life. To one feeling tired and worn out I would earnestly recommend a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. PHEBE MOSHER, 90 Brooks Street, East Boston, Mass.

COAL

The New Vancouver Coal Mining & Land Co., L'd.

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL (Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL (Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

(House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other Bituminous Gas Coal the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

THE "SOUTH-FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

VERNON, VERNON

THE TERMINUS OF THE

SHUSWAP & OKANAGAN RAILWAY

Situated in the Heart of the Famous Okanagan Valley.

THE RAILWAY CENTRE OF THE INTERIOR

The Shuswap & Okanagan Railway is now under construction, and will be completed and in Operation to Vernon next Summer, 1891.

The Okanagan & Kootenay Railway Co. obtained a charter (with land grants of 20,000 acres per mile) to construct a railway from Vernon to Sproat's Landing, via the Coldstream Valley and Cherry Creek Mines.

A charter will be applied for at the next session of the Local Legislature to construct a Railway from Vernon south to the International Boundary, to connect with the American railway system.

This is a great chance to make money, as Vernon, being in the heart of the most extensive agricultural district in the Province, will undoubtedly become a large and flourishing city.

Arrangements have been completed with responsible parties for publishing a good weekly paper at Vernon, to commence business early in the new year. This paper will be circulated by the company in all parts of the world.

A Large Hotel will be erected early next spring, and plans for same are now ready.

PLANS OF TOWN-SITE ARE NOW IN ALL REAL ESTATE OFFICES

A large number of lots have already been sold, and most of these will have buildings erected on them early next year.
Special inducements are offered to builders. See price list. Free sites will be given to parties establishing industries.
Financial assistance will also be given to responsible parties engaging in legitimate enterprises.

ADVANCE IN PRICES.

The Company will advance prices of all central lots early next month. Intending purchasers should not delay selecting lots now in order to obtain the benefit of this advance.

Vernon is situated in a pass commanding and making tributary to it the whole of the famous Okanagan Valley and its tributary valleys, the grazing country of the Lower Nicola, the mining camps of Rock Creek, Granite Creek, Keremeos, Okanagan and Monishee Mountain, the placer diggings of Cherry Creek and Siwash Creek. It is impossible to get to any of the above places without first going through Vernon.

The opening of the Shuswap & Okanagan Railway next summer will flood this favored country with land and mining prospectors, &c., and will give a great impetus to the farming, fruit growing, grazing and mining industries. Several important industries are projected and will likely be started in Vernon next year.

The best advice we can give intending purchasers is to go and see for yourself. The C.P.R. to Sicamous, Stage from Sicamous to Vernon. Leave Vancouver on Mondays or Fridays, arrive Vernon Tuesday or Friday evening.

Removal.

Mr. Geo. S. Russell has removed his barber shop to 42 Yates street, next to W. J. Jeffrees. t.f.

All Dismissed.

There were four cases up for hearing in the Police Court this morning, three of which interested a like number of Chinamen who had recklessly thrown their ashes around their premises. Each one had a story patched up, however, so that the cases were dismissed. The other case was an infraction of the bridge by-law, which was also dismissed.

Borne to the Grave.

The funeral of the late Miss Jane Longworth took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of her brother-in-law, Hon. John Robson, and at 2:30 from St. James church. The many carriages that followed the remains to the grave were filled with those who had known the deceased in life and recognized her many good qualities. The floral offerings were numerous and pretty.

Provincial Jubilee Hospital.

At the monthly meeting of the board of governors of the Jubilee Hospital yesterday the usual amount of routine business was transacted. The sewerage question was discussed, and the secretary instructed to communicate with the city sewerage committee to arrange a date of conference. The canvassers reported and it was resolved that they continue their labors. Everything works smoothly in the hospital which is pretty fully occupied just at present.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

The Archer Arrives.

At eight o'clock last evening, the British bark Archer, Capt. Dawson, arrived in the roads 133 days from Liverpool with a general cargo consigned to R. P. Rithet & Co. She had favorable weather all through the trip, with the exception of the gales at the horn, which delayed her eight days longer than usual. Shortly after leaving Liverpool the ships carpenter, Cain, was missed and it is believed committed suicide on the first day after leaving port. He was an Englishman by birth and was well liked aboard.

To-morrow Evening's Ball.

The busy hands of sailors are at work at the Assembly rooms preparing for to-morrow evening's devotions to a shrine much adored by the world of society. If indications go for anything this year's charity ball is not only going to be the most brilliant social event of the season now rapidly drawing to a close, but the best of many seasons past. Already the Assembly rooms have undergone a partial transformation which will be completed to-morrow and be in readiness for the event of the evening. The grand march will commence at nine o'clock promptly. Tickets may be had the doors.
